LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"SOCIETIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 2872

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Vancouver Millwork Manufacturers Association" has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is Greater Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this tenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a.) To bring together all persons engaged in the manufacture, distribution, or sale of sash, doors, millwork, and allied products, and to promote the welfare of those so interested or engaged within the Province of British Columbia:

(b.) To gather and disseminate information upon the supply, market conditions, production, and distribution of sash, doors, and millwork, and lumbering in relation to the manufacture of such products:

(c.) To issue grading rules for any and all species of sash, doors, and millwork manufactured by the members:

(d.) To promote the marketing and sale of sash and doors in Canada and elsewhere, and to enlarge the market and demand for these products in such manner as the Society may deem expedient, and particularly by advertising in newspapers and periodicals of all descriptions and by distribution of advertising matter:

(e.) To make such arrangements as the Society shall deem expedient with similar societies, associations, or corporations within and without the Province of British Columbia for the interchange of information relative to the sash and door and allied industries:

(f.) To originate and promote improvements in the law, and to support and oppose alterations therein, and to effect improvements in administration and, for the purposes aforesaid, petition any legislative body, any city or municipal authorities, and take such other steps and proceedings as may be deemed expedient, and generally to watch over and protect the interest of the members of the Society:

(g.) To take up, on behalf of any member, legal or other proceedings involving any matter of common interest to the Society as a whole:

(h.) To provide the ways and means of raising the necessary money to pay and defray expenses incurred in carrying out the objects of the Society, and to make, in accordance with the by-laws, assessments on the members of the Society in such amounts and at such times as the directors may determine, such assessments, when made, to constitute a debt due to the Society by the respective members:

(i.) To apply for and obtain trade-marks and other registration or recognition under the "Unfair Competition Act, 1932":

(j.) To enter into contracts or agreements with any person, partnership, society, or company, whether a member of this Society or not, relating to the conduct and improvement of the business of manufacturing and dealing in sash and doors and allied products respecting any market:

(k.) To facilitate the manufacturing, selling, and distribution of sash and doors by having its members abide by fair trade practices as established by the Society:

(l.) To co-operate with any person, society, association, or corporation, whether within or without British Columbia, for the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Society:

(m.) To assist members of the Society in their purchases of materials by ascertaining the availability of stocks and supply, and providing members with that information, so that individual and group buying may be facilitated:

(n.) To receive inquiries concerning purchases of the products of the members of the Society, and to inform the members of such inquiries so that co-operative selling by members of the Society may be arranged:

(o.) To receive and tabulate information regarding the credit and integrity of those seeking to purchase from members of the Society, and to make that information available to members at all times:

(p.) To keep acquainted with governmental regulations regarding the manufacturing, sale, and distribution of sash and doors, and to keep abreast of such changes in the law as will affect members of the Society:

(q.) To do all such other things as the Society may think conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects.

No. 18906.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Houselands, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 20th day of November, 1944.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of one dollar each.

The address of its registered office is Room 208, Williams Building, 413 Granville Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of a land company, and in connection therewith to acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, grant, concession, or otherwise, and to hold, subdivide, lay out building lots, streets, lands, squares, and otherwise to improve, develop, rent, sell, convey, exchange, lease, and otherwise dispose of and generally deal in lands and real estate of all and every kind and description, whether vacant, improved, or otherwise, as also any right, title, or interest therein, as also property of any other kind or description, including personal and movable property, and any rights and partnerships that the Company may deem necessary for the purposes of its business, and in and upon such lands and real estate, or any part thereof, to make, erect, construct, build, operate, and maintain roads, streets, lanes, approaches, and other means of communication; houses, dwellings, stables, factories, mills, plants, manufactories, and all other buildings, works, and improvements that may be considered advisable, including the construction of sidewalks, drains, water-mains, sloughs, lighting plants and accessories, and anything necessary to the improvement of the property, and, subject to obtaining the necessary licence so to do, and subject to the laws of the Province of British Columbia, to carry on the business of insurance agents in all its branches, save and except life insurance, and to carry on business as real-estate agents, experts, valuers, realty-brokers, contractors and builders, and to do a general real-estate agency business, including valuations, sales, exchanges, and the like, and negotiating leases, and all other forms of contract in respect of real estate:

(b.) To take and hold mortgages, hypothecs, leases, and charges to secure payment of the purchase price of any part of the Company's property sold, or any money due to the Company from purchasers or advances given by the Company to purchasers for building purposes or other improvements, or for the better conduct of the Company's business:

(c.) To purchase, acquire, and take over any business, undertaking, and good-will which may be necessary in the conduct of the Company's business:

(d.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any similar business:

(e.) To erect, construct, reconstruct, alter, improve, repair, decorate, furnish, and maintain houses, buildings, and conveniences of all kinds:

(f.) To purchase for investment or resale and to deal in land, leases, and other interests in real estate, and to make advances upon the security of lands and any interest therein or other property, and generally to deal in real estate and to act as agents for investment of clients' funds, and to collect rents, mortgages, interest, and principal on behalf of clients:

(g.) The foregoing clauses as also the powers contained in section 22 of the "Companies Act" shall be interpreted so as to widen rather than to narrow the objects and powers of the Company.
